PLAIN QUESTIONS TO NORWAY PEOPLE

Every Norway Reader Will Admit the Soundness of the Logic

Would Norway people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they do if the medicine were not reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years have elapsed if their experiences did not show the remedy to be deserving of it? Statements like the following must carry conviction to the mind of every reader:

C. E. Bradford, prop. of the laundry, Main St., Norway, says: "For some time I had a dull pain through the small of my back, together with a tired feeling. I couldn't rest well. When a friend advised me to take Doan's Kidney Pills I got a supply at F. P. Stone's Drug Store. After I used two boxes, the pains and other symptoms disappeared and there was a great improvement in every way. I have had no kidney trouble since." (Statement given April 30, 1912.)

On June 6, 1916 Mr. Bradford added: "I still have confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills as it hasn't been necessary for me to use a kidney medicine since I took them."

Junior Play Largely Attended

The drama "The Daughter of the Desert" given by Norway High School Juniors at the 13th Annual Exhibition in Norway Opera House, Friday evening, April 19, was well staged and attracted a large house.

This four act western play although somewhat melodramatic, carried along a view of witty comedy, the usual lovers' situations and strong emotions. The parts had been well cast, giving opportunity for individual work often under unfavorable circumstances. A bunch of "cow punchers" made up in a manner to gladden the heart of a Western hero worshipping at the altar of the Arlington Ranch in Arizona and the hotel office at Tombsville.

Muriel McKee as "Ruth Arlington," a rich ranch owner, passed through experiences calling for nerves stronger than average. "Tenderfoot" is expected to possess "Hart Morton," a mining engineer, in love with Ruth, portrayed by Arthur Desouteau, played against her luck as being unjustly accused of evil deeds through a vindictive Mexican Greaser who by every treacherous act tried to secure the love of the unwilling Ruth. John Anderson, who successfully this "evil genius," "Silvers," the gambler, in a typical manner. His plots and treacherous schemes aided by a "gun" and murderous looking nearly carried his point, but at critical times the hero intervened and his intended victims were providentially spared. Bruce Willis as "Samuel Hopkins," a rich land owner, was a diminutive old chap who followed the bunch when "there was something doing" and had a special weakness for "Widow Ogden's" custard pies and flap jacks. This raven-ous appetite cemented their friendship into a plot conspiracy for the remainder of life. Physically this was an incongruous match and the contrast offered much comedy. Marion Solborn carried out the "Mrs. Ogden" role as housekeeper with the exact of baking pastry which won Samuel after a season of suspense.

Doris Brooks in "Lucy Hopkins,"

Ruth's friend, was a typical home character who seemed above the environment and a true friend to all about her. The Bird, the devoted Indian Girl, was portrayed by Elsie Hunt. She assumed the quiet attitude and broken English of the race, coming to the rescue with information which cleared a stain from one life and fastened the guilt upon another who deserved to reap the harsh re-ward. "Sheriff Jones," as given by Orin Stone, proved the real thing as depicting that "way-back-from-the-country" seat, slouchy official. The shining badge and trusty gun were conspicuous. What Will Be YOUR ANSWER?

THE TUSCANIA LIES AT THE BOTTOM OF THE OCEAN, A VICTIM OF GERMAN RUTHLESSNESS. With her are some of our boys who have given their lives that you and I here at home may be safe. The hundred odd lives have gone forever—nothing that we can give can in any way atone for what they have given.

But we can do SOMETHING. It may not be much, but what we CAN do we MUST do. Germany has slapped our face. She has said to us, "You cannot cross the ocean with your men. You cannot fight us because you cannot reach us." And now she is waiting for our answer. What will it be? Are we going to sit here and simply sigh and say how sorry we are, or are we going to act?

Those who know America will realize that every man, woman and child is going to join in an answer that can be heard from one end of Germany to the other—an answer so clear, so strong and so true that it may have a far greater effect than any of us can imagine on Germany's future policy.

LET THIS BE OUR ANSWER—let every man, woman and child in this great land of ours go out today and buy Liberty Bonds. Let's show Germany that instead of undermining our morale, a catastrophe like this only stirs us to action.

Let your answer be a Liberty Bond.

This is to Give Notice

On April 30, 1918, we shall close our doors for the last time on the CREDIT system, and May 1st will open on a CASH basis.

We feel compelled to do this for the reason all the manufacturing interests of the country have gone onto a cash basis.

All machinery at the time of sale must be settled for in cash or a good bankable note. All repairs will be cash. Repairs ordered by mail or telephone will receive prompt attention and be sent C. O. D.

This step has been taken after long and careful consideration and is the only way we can see out of the present situation.

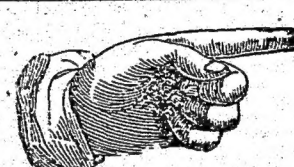

We hope and trust this change will meet the approval of our friends and patrons, who in the past have given us their patronage, and to whom we feel very grateful.

We believe that the change will be of great advantage both to ourselves and our customers, for we certainly can give you more value for your money than we can on the old system.

LIBERTY BONDS ARE NOT A BURDEN BUT A BLESSING.

Thrift here at home does not require a fraction of the self-denial demanded of our soldiers in France. Intelligent thrift is the basis of success in life which is your ambition to achieve, and for the lack of which you are likely to suffer in later years.

SPRING HOSIERY And Underwear

THE WAR CONDITIONS have made this line one of the hardest to keep up to our high standards.

PRACTICALLY no imported goods, shortage of knitting machines and labor, high prices of cotton, are some of the reasons.

NEARLY A YEAR ago we began buying for this season, so as to be able to sell you good reliable hosiery and underwear, at somewhere near the old prices.

OUR JUDGEMENT is to supply your entire season's needs early as we see no relief in sight until some time after the war closes.

South Paris

Patriots Day Fittingly Celebrated

One of the best parades given in South Paris in years was organized Friday for the purpose of stimulating the sale of Liberty Bonds. Flags and decorations were conspicuous throughout the village and the country side turned out in large numbers to observe the unusual event.

The line of march formed at Paris high school building on Pine street about 10 o'clock, and proceeded up High, down Western avenue, down Pleasant street to Market square, thence to Shurtleff primary school, and back to Market Square.

The line was nearly a mile long. It was led by the Sons of Veterans, with George Eastman as color bearer followed by the veterans of the G. A. R. and Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R. in automobiles, bedecked with flags and banners patriotically inscribed. Isaac Monk was the color bearer.

Next came South Paris Service League led by Ruth Bolster and Flora Murch, carrying "The South Paris Service League" banner. These ladies were followed by the Boy Scouts, with Scoutmaster Chester Soule, principal of Paris high school in charge, with Elmer Dean and Robert Demmon, drummer boys. Then came several hundred children from all the schools in town in charge of the teachers. It was a long trail for the tiny tots, but they marched proudly along without an indication of fatigue.

A large flag carried by the lady employees of the Mason Manufacturing Co. all dressed in pretty costumes of white with blue caps and white stars and red trimmings were very attractive and one of the hits in the parade.

There were 40 autos in the procession all bearing banners suitably inscribed and tastefully decorated. The drum corps was composed of Howard Shaw, George Soule, Donald S. Briggs. The Girls' Patriotic League went in autos with Marion Clark dressed as Uncle Sam, white hat, white hair, white whiskers and all! Beside Uncle Sam were flower girls and Red Cross nurses.

"Minnewawa Camp Fire Girls" with Ethel Crockett as guardian, offered a novel hit with their typical Indian costumes. Fred LeBaron as "Kaiser Bill," with helmet, purple robe and the characteristic moustache, occupied a cage built on the trailer and hauled by the Paris town tractor. John Ranney as Uncle Sam drove the machine, while soldiers with fixed bayonets marched alongside ready to frustrate any attempt at an escape.

A placard "The Beast Kaiser" labeled the exhibit which was not needed as the hit was self-evident. Around the four sides of this float in bold letters were inscribed, "Every Bond is a bomb thrown at the Huns," "Back up the boys with a Liberty Bond," "Don't shirk your duty, buy that Bond, today," "If you can't fight, your money can buy a Liberty Bond." This exhibit was the work of Selectman Charles W. Bowker.

All along the route the service flags were saluted by the Service League and the children cheered by the boys. As the procession proceeded to Market Square, another very pleasing feature was the representation of the Goddess of Liberty by Nora Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eleanor Dunham of South Paris who posed in the window of Mrs. Luella C. Stanley's store even the Kaiser noticed this personage and bowed low.

At the close of the parade all gathered in Market Square, where the school children sang "God Save Our Blessed Land" and "The U. S. Marine Band" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Iva Nutt, supervisor of music in the schools directed.

Rev. Chester G. Miller gave a fine patriotic address, followed by Howard T. Briggs who urged all to buy a bond to help our boys over there. Both speeches were loudly cheered.

The chairman who managed this part of the Patriotic observance parade were: Charles W. Bowker; automobile, Penley Ripley; speaker, Howard T. Briggs, decorated; Nelson G. Elder; banners, Donald S. Briggs; music, Howard Shaw; publicity, Alton C. Wheeler; to confer with factory management, Walter L. Gray.

A unanimous call has been made for the successful team in Mt. Pleasant Rebekah lodge to repeat the "Indian Extravaganza" recently given in their contest. The fame of this production has gone far and wide, so it is probable the entertainment will be staged with additional novelties for the Service League in the near future.

The South Paris Grammar school second ball team were defeated by the Woodstock Grammar school nine at Bryant Pond Saturday. Score was 9 to 5.

The condition of David S. Knapp, who has been ill since his arrival at Togus, is said to be improved. Mrs. Knapp, who is ill at the home of Mrs. Cora S. Briggs, is more comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stiles on Pleasant street are displaying a three star service flag in honor of their sons, Sgt. Jesse E. Stiles, Sgt. Fred Stiles, who are in Co. D, 103rd U. S. Infantry, and Corporal Walter B. Newcomb, a cousin of the Stiles boys.

At the annual meeting of the South Paris W. C. T. U. held April 16, the following officers were elected:

Special Trains For Patriotic Labor

The Grand Trunk is running a special train from West Paris on Saturday and Sunday mornings leaving West Paris at 6:30 and South Paris at 6:45 for the purpose of speeding up the handling of shells, flour and foodstuffs for the Allies at Portland. This offers an opportunity for all patriotic workers to do something practical for the cause and earn reasonable wages while assisting the government.

The railroad pays 33 cents per hour for day work, 38 cents for night and Sunday work, from the time of leaving home to return. The men can come back on the train due here at 7:00, or on a special leaving Portland at 11 p. m. It is understood that the special trains will be run as announced until further notice.

Service Flag at Baptist Church

A service flag carrying five blue and one gold star was presented to the Baptist Church Sunday morning, the presentation being made by Carrie Moore in behalf of Mrs. Clarence G. Morton's Sunday School class. "The Vow," Rev. G. H. Newton accepted the gift, Ralph Edwards sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," the choir and congregation sang "America's Prayer."

The gold star is in memory of Frank West, who died of pneumonia soon after joining the navy, while the blue stars represent Guy R. Cole, Canadian Overseas Force, Elmer Robert Tyler, Navy, Carroll Cutting, Robert Parlin and Lionel Bowker.

Paris Grange

Law Partnership Formed

Harry M. Shaw has given up his office in Maxim Block and moved into the law office in Billings Block occupied by Hon. James S. Wright. A partnership has been formed for the practice of law. Mr. Wright is one of the oldest and best known attorneys in Oxford County, having been admitted to the Oxford bar September 1893, also served ten years as clerk of Supreme Judicial Court and later became County Attorney.

Mr. Shaw is a native of Paris, read law in the office of County Attorney Frederick R. Dyer at Buckfield and graduated from the University of Maine Law School. He was admitted to practice at the March term of Court, 1917.

Annual Field Day

A. W. Walker & Son held their annual spring field day Wednesday for an exhibition of agricultural implements, tractor, motor cars and gasoline engines from their large stock. They make this an opportunity to instruct and advise the farmer in his seed and fertilizer selections which are important and questions on this season owing to high prices in every department of agricultural work. An interesting feature in the morning was a demonstration of ploughing and road making by the Paris town tractor crew.

A baked bean dinner with fruit for the tractor crew was served at noon in the corn factory through the cooperation of the Burnham & Morrill Co. The representative from this company also met the people and contracted for a considerable sweet corn acreage.

A school of instruction followed the day dinner with Albert W. Walker in charge. Patriotism was the theme brought out by the speakers and emphasis was laid upon the part the farmer must play in this grim drama of Democracy is to win. Rev. C. Wallington Rogers, pastor of the South Paris Congregational Church, spoke on "War Sacrifices" and Alton C. Wheeler presented in a forceful manner "Farming Finances," by which he explained the farmers' loss of status, which is intended to assist the food producer over the hard places. Charles Tucker of the International Harvester Co. explained the necessity of conserving the soil's fertility if bumper crops are to be raised. He urged every farmer to go at it with a will this season and do his very best, it being no time for a rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrar of Paris Hill are to move to South Paris to live with Mrs. Farrar's brother, David B. Woodbury. Mr. Farrar has sold his farm to E. B. Davis.

Shaw's Orchestra has been engaged for the grand dance at North Buckfield May 31, and will furnish music for the graduation at West Paris High School, and the reception and ball given by the Canton High School.

Mrs. F. A. Heidner and Laura of Springfield, Mass. are guests at L. M. Noyes' while getting their household goods ready for shipment to Springfield. They have purchased a house there and will settle their home at an early date.

Paris High opened the baseball season Friday afternoon on the Pine street grounds, winning from Gould's Academy with the score 15 to 6. The Behel team have not been able to use their grounds this season and were far below Paris landed hard on the start with doubles and triples which piled up runs against all defenses.

The pupils of the eighth and ninth grade room are second of the Paris schools to receive a certificate of credit for having a one hundred percent. enrollment in the War Savings and Thrift Stamp Campaign. Liberty Bonds $350, War Savings Stamps $95, Thrift Stamps $36, a net amount of $481. The girls of the Patriotic League have just completed an Afghan, besides making several ambulance pillows.

The will of Mrs. Drucilla Dunn of So. Paris came before the Probate Court recently for a hearing, it being contested by Mrs. Gammon of Canton, Mrs. Dunn's sister, through her attorney, Frederick R. Dyer of Buckfield. The instrument was drawn January 1914, Hon. James S. Wright is named as executor and by its terms Mrs. Margaret Tyler of South Paris would receive twenty-five dollars, the cemetery association will be reimbursed for the perpetual care of her lot and the residue was given to the South Paris Baptist church as a fund, the income of which is to be used to support preaching.

A savings bank deposit amounts to about $1,500. Mr. Wright appeared for the will. Mr. Dyer presented no witnesses and offered no objections to the decree allowing the will, but was granted ten days in which to file an appeal.

Col. Alfred A. Starbird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Starbird of South Paris has been nominated for brigadier general by President Wilson. Col. Starbird served in the Spanish-American war leaving Maine with Co. D, Norway, as a private, advanced rapidly to Lieutenant then Captain and now is acting inspector general in the regular army.

A service flag is now being displayed in the drug store window of Charles H. Howard Co., containing 7 stars representing the boys who are now in the United States service, that have clerked in the drug store, Robert W. Wheeler, Arthur Dow, Murray Bigelow, Raymond Atwood, Earl Clifford, Hubert Barker and Donald Bartlett.

E. B. Clifford has purchased the grocery store of Ernest F. Shaw located opposite Grand Trunk Station.

Mrs. Clara Howard is visiting her cousin, Mrs. L. Bradford at Woodfords.

The lake has been well stocked with salmon and for two years past they have not been molested to any great extent.

The party will leave on the afternoon express for Fort Slocum, N. Y.

Each drafted must present their card when they report on that date which is an order requiring strict enforcement.

Chairman B. E. McIntire believes it the duty of the citizens in Norway and Paris to give the boys a rousing send off Thursday afternoon, also not forget the large party who leave Tuesday.

He has applied for a special car to accommodate the 46 draftees who leave South Paris on the second call Tuesday morning, April 30 for Ayer, Mass. This thoughtful act will be appreciated by those who can journey to their camp without a transfer.

Sam Isaacson, who has been interested in the Service flag movement at Ward 8, missed the exercises Friday afternoon owing to a misunderstanding with a Finn near Baker Hill. Sam was playing his trade on that road during the forenoon and as the noon hour approached, inquired the way to Norway. Oxford County Medical Examination

The Oxford County board has sent away by selection in two drafts and induction thirty-one registrants, every man has passed the several physical examinations required at the various camps where they have gone. The examining physicians are Dr. Herman L. Bartlett, Norway; Dr. Bial F. Bradbury, Norway; Dr. E. M. McCarthy, Rumford; Dr. O. L. Halon, Mexico. On the Medical Advisory Board are Dr. L. H. Trufant, Norway; Dr. J. G. Littlefield, South Paris; Dr. I. H. Wight, Bethel and Dr. Harry P. Jones as dental examiner.

Democratic County Committee Meeting
Beals Tavern, Norway, will be the meeting place of the Democratic County Committee Saturday, April 27. The Oxford County situation will be talked over and reports from various sections read and discussed. This is an adjourned meeting and a large attendance is expected. The Committee are as follows:

Government Employment for Registrants
The local board at South Paris are authorized to receive applications from capable men in the draft regardless of class, who can qualify in certain trades. Lists containing some seventy-five skilled occupations and professions have been posted at Rumford, Norway post office, and the local board office at the County buildings, South Paris. Men who have passed the physical examination or can meet that standard for general service will find it to their advantage to consult the local board not later than Saturday, April 27, as registrations on that induction list will close this week.

Adjutant General George McL. Presson at Augusta issued the following statement to the local boards:
"There is an immediate demand for skilled men in various units of the army, needed by General Pershing. The Selective Service machinery must produce these skilled men. Delay in the several states in completing the occupational cards precludes a resort to the cards to secure these men. About 12,000 will be needed in the near future."

"The military duty and training of these skilled men will be interesting, and the men who succeed in securing induction into the branches of the service to be filled will receive material personal benefit, which will aid them in advancement both in their army career and in after life."

"I'm With You for All I'm Worth"

The man who puts on a uniform and goes to take his place where the fighting is done is with the Government for all he is worth. When man has staked his life he can go no farther in proving his loyalty.

There are many of us who cannot offer our lives in the service of our Country. Nevertheless, we too, can prove that we are with our Government and our Nation for all we are worth.

By purchasing Liberty Bonds to the full extent of our ability we prove our faith in the justice of our cause, we give our support to the men who are going to fight our fight, and we earn for ourselves the satisfaction that can come only through a conscientious performance of duty.

YOU TAKE NO CHANCE

The man who goes to fight necessarily takes a chance. In buying Liberty Bonds you take no chance. Your investment is secure. Liberty Bonds are just as sound as is the money which the Government issues. A Liberty Bond is better, in fact, than money, because the Liberty Bond you buy today may be worth more than its face value when you get ready to cash it in. Money can never be worth more than 100-cents on the dollar.

Don't let another day go by without proving that you are with the forces that are fighting for the preservation of liberty.

The Most Wonderful Plant in the World

If a large and thoroughly reliable business concern offered to the public a plant that could be bought in any size, at a price suited to every man's pocketbook, that required absolutely no care, would grow out-of-doors or in the house, summer and winter alike, and was guaranteed to bear twice a year, on stated days for a long term of years, blossoms so highly prized that anybody would accept them in payment for merchandise and service; and if at the end of the period the concern guaranteed to repay the owner his total original cost—such a plant would truly be the most wonderful plant in the world.

The foregoing conditions apply exactly to the terms and advantages of the third issue of the Liberty Loan Bonds. We advise their purchase by every household in the country.

Don't criticize—energize!

Don't delay—buy today—at any bank

Lon Cushman: "I feel just like I'd run over everything when driving my car; I'd rather drive a yoke of oxen on a side hill farm than to take that truck through Main street when there is anybody on the street."

Walter Chandler says a man told him the other day he could put in his blab that his cow was sick. He also said, "I almost forgot to say my wife is under the weather. I tell you I'm worried. That cow cost me a good deal of money."

April 26, 1825, George Hill, Court street, Portland, advertised thusly: "Leghorns: Have this day received 2 cases leghorn bunnets and gypsies, very cheap." I always supposed leghorns was a name given a certain breed of fowls.

Arthur E. Forbes, editor of the Oxford Democrat is candidate for the legislature from his district. No doubt he will get the nomination which is equivalent to an election. I know of no better man in the district for the position unless it is a democrat.

When it becomes necessary for Abe Stahl and John Goebel to change their names to get away from pro-German stuff then it will be all right for the city of Berlin, N. H., to change its name but up to that time, let the old name of Berlin, N. H., remain on the map and in the directory.

I fear I've got myself into trouble. A stylishly dressed, young-looking unknown woman brandishes an umbrella over my head and threatened to break it on me if I printed the date of her birth. I forgot to ask her name, therefore she may have come to break her umbrella unless she sends her name into the office.

Wm. C. Leavitt still contends his disbelief in the Germans having a cannon that will shoot 74 miles and winds up on the derivation of the word "Fido"—dog's name—which was recently printed in this paper as coming from the Greek.

This is what he says: "I have had sufficient education to know that fides, from which our word fidelity is derived is Latin. I know a lot more highbrow stuff, too. Probably you never found out that just before crossing the Delaware at the battle of Gallipoli, Xerxes uttered those famous words 'veni, vidi, vici,' an Egyptian phrase meaning 'the line is busy.' This expression so excited the admiration of Diogenes that he gave Xerxes dominion over one-third of all the lands in the Elysian archipelago, allowed him to puff sugar in his coffee, smoke cigars, play matches, and conferred upon the title of the Vici Kid."

Worth Fighting For

SHALL this little girl grow up in an American home, healthy and happy? Shall she have the advantage of living and learning in a free land, under free institutions? Shall such children develop into the Liberty-loving citizens that a free America may be proud of?

For over two hundred years Americans have fought valiantly, and died gallantly, to win for themselves and hand down to their posterity the blessings of liberty, justice, self-government and equal opportunity. This precious heritage, bought at so great a price, is now in danger.

The question which to-day confronts America as a nation, and you as an individual, is whether or not a free America is worth fighting for

Are American children in this and all future generations to receive unimpaired the legacy of freedom of which we are now the custodians, or shall their country be turned over bodily to the brutal, rapacious, power-mad enemy which has forced us into this war? This question cannot be answered by word of mouth, but by deeds alone.

Hendrickson-Littlehale
A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Littlehale of North Paris, Tuesday evening, April 16, at 8:30 o'clock when their youngest daughter, Wilma Frances, was united in marriage with Alvah Rudolph Hendrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hendrickson of South Woodstock. Rev. Alton Verrill performed the ceremony, the single ring service being used.

The bridesmaid was Edith, a sister of the bride, and the youngest brother of the bride, William, was best man. The bride wore green silk poplin and carried white carnations. The groom wore a dark suit. The bridesmaid wore white. The bridal party stood under an arch of evergreen.

Franklin Grange

Franklin Grange held a very interesting meeting, April 20. State Master Thompson was present and gave a fine talk on the war and the part that the people, especially the farmer, must play in order that the war may be won. Mr. Thompson believes that people in general do not realize how serious is the situation that confronts the country and the tremendous effort which must be made by each and every American. He said it was much better to make up our minds that we are in for five years of war and have it end sooner than to think the war will close this year and have it last five.

Brother Freeman Wyman was present and gave an interesting talk. Brother Wyman believes that many reforms will result and have resulted both in this country and among the Allies from the necessities of the war. Mr. Wyman was one of the charter members of Franklin Grange and we are always glad to welcome him.

The next meeting will be in the evening.

Five years later he was a Socialist candidate for Congress in the State of Maine and in 1912 he was the same party's candidate for the governorship. Of late years he has been a literary adviser for one of the large New York City publishing houses. He was born at Ft. McPherson, Nebraska, where his father was then acting as a chaplain in the regular army."
